DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The first floor of these two connected houses has a continuous facade finished in artificial stone. Located in mid block, both house have flat roofs, and 2 bays above the first floor. The one to the left, of tan running of similar brick, has two floors.

The left portion of the first floor has a large bow window with 18 panes, and to the right a solid door. Continuing to the right are two more solid doors. Immediately adjacent to the door furthest to the right is a nine panel window with a leaded glass scene of a duck in flight (the door also has a stained glass transom). A canvas marquee extends from the 2 left doors over the side walk. The entire first floor is topped by a fascia with molding and dentiles.

The left house is ornamented by red brick band courses at sill and lintel level, and below the roof edge. A line of alternating red and tan bricks just below a narrow fascia vaguely suggests dentils. The windows are one-over-one double hung and have scalloped canvas awnings.

The house to the right has two one-over-one windows with awnings, brick sills and lintels. Each lintel is segmentally arched on its top. There is a dentiled cornice with end brackets under a low parapet.
